The winners were announced, and they were applauded for their remarkable performances. Certificates and cash prizes were distributed to the winners and participants.

Seminar on "International HPV awareness day

Date: Wednesday, 4th March , 2026

Venue : Seminar hall, Main Building

The Kolhapur Medical Association (KMA) in collaboration with Kolhapur Cancer Centre (KCC) organized an HPV Awareness Program on the occasion of International HPV Awareness Day to spread awareness about the importance of HPV vaccination and cervical cancer prevention. The event, held at KIT College of Engineering, Kolhapur, focused on educating students and attendees about the long -term protection provided by the HPV vaccine and the need for early preventive healthcare measures. Dr. Reshma Pawar, Director of KCC, delivered an informative session highlighting the significance of HPV vaccination, women's health, and cancer awareness. The program was graced by Chief Guest Dr. R. M. Kulkarni, President of KMA, along with other distinguished members of the association. The awareness initiative successfully encouraged participants to understand the importance of vaccination, preventive screening, and public health awareness, making the event highly educational and socially impactful.

ABHYUDAYA 2026 "Flame-Free Flavours (Food Making Competition)"

Date : 13th March, 2026

Venue : Seminar hall, Main Building

The Flame-Free Flavours (Food Making Competition), organized by the Women Development and Gender Equality Cell (WDGEC), provided students with an exciting platform to showcase their culinary creativity and innovation. The competition encouraged participants to prepare unique and delicious dishes without the use of fire, promoting the idea of safe and quick cooking methods. The event aimed to enhance students' creativity, presentation skills, and teamwork while highlighting the importance of nutrition and smart cooking techniques. Participants enthusiastically presented a variety of innovative dishes, demonstrating their talent, imagination, and passion for cooking

The winners were announced, and they were applauded for their remarkable performances. Certificates and cash prizes were distributed to the winners and participants.

ABHYUDAYA 2026 - Beyond the Script (One-Act Play Competition)

Date : 14th March 2026

Venue : Dr. Vikram Sarabhai, Electrical Seminar Hall

The One-Act Play Competition, organized by the Women Development and Gender Equality Cell (WDGEC) as part of ABHYUDAYA 2026, provided students with a dynamic platform to showcase their theatrical talent and social awareness. The competition encouraged participants to present powerful messages on gender equality and empowerment through acting, dialogue, and storytelling. It aimed to enhance students' confidence, creativity, and teamwork skills while addressing important social issues. This event allowed students to go beyond words and express meaningful themes through performance, bringing ideas like equality, leadership, and social change to life on stage. The One-Act Play Competition was centered around four meaningful themes designed to encourage participants to explore deep social realities and human emotions through dramatic performance. Teams were required to select one of the following themes for their play:

• The Silent Sacrifice: Focusing on the unnoticed struggles and sacrifices individuals make for their families and society.

• The Unseen Work: Highlighting the often-unrecognized efforts, especially of women, in maintaining households and supporting others.

• Generation of Change: Showcasing the role of youth in bringing positive transformation and challenging outdated norms.

• Behind Every Success: Emphasizing the hidden support systems and contributions that lead to an individual's achievements.

The event concluded with a formal announcement of the winners who best captured the essence of ABHYUDAYA 2026.

• Winner: Sharayu Kadam -₹2000

• Runner-up: Madhura Patil -₹1500

To motivate all participants, E-certificates were issued, recognizing their creative contribution to the Women Development and Gender Equality Cell's initiative.

ABHYUDAYA 2026 Creative Canvas: Painting Competition

Date : 14th March 2026

Venue : Seminar hall, Central Library, KITCoEK

The Creative Canvas (Painting Competition), organized by the Women Development and Gender Equality Cell (WDGEC) as part of ABHYUDAYA 2026, provided students with a vibrant platform to showcase their artistic expression and social perspectives. The competition encouraged participants to translate complex themes of gender equality and empowerment into visual art. The event aimed to enhance students' creativity, critical thinking, and aesthetic sensibilities while highlighting important social messages through the medium of painting. This competition was designed to let students express social themes through art. The goal was to move beyond traditional discussions and see how students visualize concepts like leadership, gender roles, and future equality. The competition was centered around four specific themes designed to provoke thought regarding gender dynamics and the future of equality. Participants were required to choose one of the following for their artwork:

• Together Towards Tomorrow: Focusing on collaborative progress between all genders.

• She Leads, She Inspires: Highlighting the impact of women in leadership and mentorship roles.

• Rise of the Modern Woman: Depicting the evolution of women's roles in professional and social spheres. • Breaking Barriers: Illustrating the overcoming of societal stereotypes and obstacles.

The event concluded with a formal announcement of the winners who best captured the essence of ABHYUDAYA 2026.

• Winner: Riya More -₹2000

• Runner-up: Priyanka Koli -₹1500

To motivate all participants, E-certificates were issued, recognizing their creative contribution to the Women Development and Gender Equality Cell's initiative.

School Visit

Date: 16th March 2026

Venue : Shri Jyotirlinga School, Wadi Ratnagiri (Jotiba),Tal.Panhala, Dist.Kolhapur

The School Visit Program, organized by the Women Development and Gender Equality Cell (WDGEC), aimed to create awareness among school students about education, hygiene, and personal development. The visit provided an opportunity for college students to interact with young learners and contribute to their academic and social growth. The program focused on sharing knowledge, motivating students, and encouraging them to pursue education with confidence and enthusiasm. The volunteers conducted awareness activities focusing on important topics such as the importance of education, personal hygiene, and gender equality. Students were guided about maintaining cleanliness, regular school attendance, and respecting everyone equally. The awareness session was conducted in a simple and engaging manner using real-life examples so that students could easily understand and relate to the message.
